2. This should be the full name of the Stock to be transferred. (Eg BHP Billiton Ltd)

6. Both the quantity in words and number must be included in the relevant fields, please ensure they are the same.

7A. This is the SRN that the holding is currently recorded at the registry. Depending on which registry this is, the SRN may begin with a letter or zero and will be a total of 11 digits long. This can be located on any holding or dividend statement.

12. This section must be signed in original ink. The registry will not accept a copy.

 If you are a company or corporation, you will also need to provide a certified true copy of the company signature list and Power of Attorney which must be certified on each page in original ink.

4. This is the type of stock to be transferred. If you are unsure, it will be indicated on the SRN statement you viewed to confirm the holdings.

7. This is the name that the stock is currently registered in. This must match exactly what is written on the SRN statement. (eg Mr John Edward Francis Smith). If the ASTF only states Mr John Edward Smith, and the holding is in the name of Mr John Edward Francis Smith the registry will reject the form.

13. Date of signature.

All other fields can be left blank.
