4. To communicate with the Firm on behalf of the Client regarding any complaints or disputes that the Client may have against the Firm regarding each Account.
5. To transfer money between each Account and between any other account that the Client holds with the Firm. For the avoidance of doubt, the Attorney is not permitted to instruct the Firm to transfer money outside the Firm or to accept money from outside the Firm.
6. To accept any amendments to the Firm's terms of business, including the applicable customer agreement for that type of Account with the Firm, on behalf of the Client.

THE AUTHORISATION GIVEN BY THE CLIENT TO THE ATTORNEY IN THE PRECEDING PARAGRAPH IS SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

1. The Attorney agrees to the limited nature of this Power of Attorney, as set out in the preceding paragraph, and the Attorney agrees not to take any action that would or may fall outside the power granted herein.
2. The Attorney is not entitled to grant sub-powers of attorney under this Power of Attorney. Any right of the Attorney to grant sub-powers of attorney under any applicable law shall be excluded.
3. Whether or not the Attorney may use its own discretion when dealing on behalf of the Client under this Power of Attorney is a separate matter to be determined between the Attorney and the Client. The Firm shall generally not be obliged to make any enquiry of the Client or the Attorney as to this matter, and the Attorney agrees to act within whatever power has been granted by the Client to the Attorney.
4. The Attorney is aware that each Account and all transactions entered into on each Account are governed by the applicable customer agreement for that type of Account with the Firm and the Attorney agrees to comply with the applicable customer agreement when acting with the Firm on behalf of the Client.
5. The Firm's acceptance of this Power of Attorney is conditional upon the Attorney opening an account with the Firm in its personal capacity and maintaining that account for the entire period that it acts as agent for the Client under this Power of Attorney. The Attorney must open in its personal capacity with the Firm the same type of account(s) as the Account(s) it has Power of Attorney over. The Attorney is not required to fund its personal account(s), nor is the Attorney required to conduct any transactions on its personal account(s).
6. The Client authorises the Firm to accept all instructions given to the Firm by the Attorney, whether orally or in writing (including by email), in relation to each Account. The Firm is generally not obliged to make any enquiry of the Client or of any other person before acting on such instructions.

7. The Firm hereby notifies the Client that the Attorney is not an employee, agent or representative of the Firm and further that the Attorney does not have any power or authority to act on behalf of the Firm or to bind the Firm in any way.
8. Unless the Client informs the Firm to the contrary, the Firm may from time to time communicate with the Attorney directly regarding each Account. The Client consents to this and the Attorney agrees to pass any such communications onto the Client without delay. Communications made by the Firm to the Attorney are deemed to be received by the Client at the same time at which they are received by the Attorney.
9. The Firm may disclose to the Attorney all information that the Firm holds in relation to each Account, including personal information that the Firm holds in relation to the Client to ensure the execution of this Power of Attorney. Such processing of personal data is permissible according to Article 6(1)(f) General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation(EU) 679/2016). The Firm has a legitimate interest to process such data as it is necessary to carry out the relationship with the Client. Further information on the processing of personal data is included in the Firm's privacy notice as published on the Firm's website(s), as may be updated from time to time.
10. The Client accepts that, in providing an electronic or online trading system to the Attorney, the Firm has the right but not the obligation to set limits, controls, parameters and/or other controls on the Attorney's ability to use such a system. The Client accepts that if the Firm chooses not to place any such limits or controls on the Attorney's trading, or if such limits or controls fail for any reason, the Firm will not exercise oversight or control over instructions given by the Attorney.
11. If the Client wishes to revoke or amend this authorisation, it must provide written notice (including a notice by email) of such intention to the Firm. Any such notice shall not be effective until it is received by the Firm. The Client agrees that it will generally remain bound by all instructions given to the Firm prior to the revocation/variation being effective.
12. The Firm, acting in its reasonable discretion, may decide that it will no longer accept instructions from the Attorney in relation to any Account. If the Firm does so, it must provide reasonable notice to the Client.
13. This Power of Attorney and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Power of Attorney shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.
